2025 ANNUAL REPORT

Mission

We made 288 in-person and remote appearances on behalf of 128 clients, giving them $1,026,000 worth of low- to no-cost direct representation that secured court orders about the care of children, financial support, and protection from abuse.

Fifty-nine volunteers donated over $107,015 worth of their time working alongside staff in the office, at 20 remote legal clinics, and at events. The clinics allowed us to serve 102 people throughout Los Angeles County and beyond.

LevittQuinn serves clients throughout L.A. County

Representation Matters

Our legal services cover the full range of family law issues. In 2025, we:

- Represented ten-year-old twins in court, demonstrating to the judge that the boys' well-being was best protected if they remained in the custody of their father.
- Represented our 63-year-old client in court in the successful adoption of her three-year-old granddaughter, whom she had raised since birth.
- Helped a young mother retain sole custody of her five-year-old son, standing beside her in court. The boy's father, who had a history of domestic abuse, had been pursuing joint custody.
- Provided extensive services, including representation at trial, for a 31-year-old mother, securing for her primary physical custody of her eight-year-old son, child support, and her share of the marital property, including proceeds of the sale of the family home and her former husband's pensions.

Funders and Finances

Each year, LevittQuinn works with accounting firm and pro bono partner Gursey | Schneider LLP to conduct an audit of our finances. In accordance with our strategic goals, we remain committed to transparency, efficient resource allocation, and at the heart of it all, a client-centered approach to operations.
